Building Capacity for Nonprofit Boards

John Mize is a practicing attorney with the law firm of Clark, Mize & Linville, Chartered in Salina, Kansas. The focus of his practice is on health care and nonprofit organization law. He holds a BA degree from the University of Kansas, a Master's Degree in Nonprofit Management from Regis University and a law degree from Southern Methodist University. He is admitted to practice law in Kansas and Colorado. He is listed in Best Lawyers in America in the health law category and Missouri-Kansas Super Lawyers also in the health law category, both of which are peer-selected. Since 1977 he has been general counsel to Salina Regional Health Center and its related entities. He is a member of the Kansas Bar Association and the American Health Lawyers Association and has given continuing legal education programs for those organizations. Nonprofit organization service and governance have been of passionate interest to him and he currently serves as Chair of the Greater Salina Community Foundation and as a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of Kansas Endowment Association.

The 8 Principles of Effective Governance

Mr. Mize will discuss the following principles from his publication, "The 8 Principles of Effective Governance: A Handbook for Nonprofit Directors".

1. The constituency served by the organization
2. The need for a well-defined mission and vision for the organization
3. The legal limitations imposed on the organization because of being tax-exempt
4. Legal duties required of directors
5. Processes for director selection, organization and self-monitoring performance
6. Processes for hiring, evaluating, and compensating chief executive officers
7. Best Governance practices
8. Servant leadership

Workshop Information

For your convenience, we will be offering the workshop at two different times on Wednesday, February 24th:

3:00 - 4:30 p.m.
&
6:30 - 8:00 p.m.

Both workshops will be held at:

The Front Door
1615 10th Street
Great Bend, KS
(620)-793-4100

Light snacks and beverages will be provided at both.

The workshop is open to all area nonprofit agencies, staff, and board members.

There is no cost to register for the event!

However, an RSVP is required as space is limited (see enclosed form).

John Mize's book, "The 8 Principles of Effective Governance: A Handbook for Directors of Nonprofit Organizations" is available for purchase as supplementary material to the workshop. It is an 84 page publication further detailing the 8 Principles of Effective Governance and includes 25 helpful checklists throughout the book. Purchase of the book is not necessary to attend the workshop and copies of the PowerPoint will be included in the handouts.
